Good Words From Maryland.

It will be gratifying to the friends of Colonel John T. McGraw, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second District of Wast Virginia, to know that his candidacy is meeting with great approval in of such treatment is illustrated in the alarming number of deaths which result from it. The disease is in the blood, and hence can not be cut, out. Nine times out of ten the surgeon's knife only hastens death.

Maryland. The Oakland Mountain Democrat, among other Maryland papers, voices its endorsement as fellows:

The candidacy of Col. John T. McGraw in the Second Congression al District of West Virginia is exciting much interest in Democratic circles over there, and as the Colo nel is now-a temporary resident of Maryland, having a cottage in the Deer Park hotel grounds for the season, where he spends his Sundays, the Democrats bereabouts are taking considerable interest in his can didacy also, and wish him success although they cannot aid him with their votes.

One thing is certain, the Democrats of the Second Congressional District of West Virginia have made no mistake in their nomination for Congress, and if anybody can beat Congressman Daytor, Col. McGraw is the man.

In nominating Dayton the Repub icans have unwittingly done just what the Democrats hoped they would do, as he is regarded as a and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral. much easier man to beat than some other aspiring for the nomination. others aspiring for the nomination. Hence the Democrats are jubilant over the prospect of a victory in District that by rights belong to them and which has too long been misrepresented by a Republican.

We hope and believe their antici pations will be realized and the dis riet wrested from Republican mis rule and control, just as we expect to do in the case of our own Congres sional district (the Sixth Maryland) at the coming November election.

Col McGraw, therefore, has our nost ardent wishes for success, and the indications are that he will ac complish his ambition and become the next Congressman from the Sec ond District of West Virginia.
